

I support XM radio and all of its content. The FCC should not be allowed to take away what is being called "locally oriented" content like 'Traffic & Weather'. When I am about to travel out of state I need to know how the weather is at my destination. There is no "local" station that is going to provide me with the weather in Dallas when I live in NJ!!